

Green University of Bangladesh (GUB)

Scholarship and Waiver Policy for Undergraduate and Master's Students

1. Financial assistance is generally given to meritorious students to give them incentive for higher studies. Such assistance can be given in the form of academic scholarships and tuition fee waiver. Green University has dedicated Taka 10 CRORE in its "Scholarship and Waiver Fund" for the year 2017. Eligible students can avail this Scholarship and Waiver Fund.

2. In year 2016, GUB has spent Taka 9 CRORE in "Scholarship and Waiver purposes. This was a significant step forward for GUB to encourage academic excellence in Bangladesh. We are committed in persistent investment in the "Scholarship and Waiver Program" in the coming years too. We encourage dedicated students, aiming for a bright career to apply for admission at GUB. During admission, one can also apply in a prescribed form paying Tk. 100.00. Various category of waiver and scholarship policies are appended below:

10. Conditions for getting Scholarship/Tuition Fee Waiver

a. This policy will be effective from Summer Semester 2017 for the new students who are entitled for tuition waiver based on their previous academic results.

b. Scholarship and tuition fee waiver in first two semesters will be given on the basis of the student's previous academic results. For third and consecutive semesters, if a student has been awarded scholarship and tuition fee waiver, s/he must demonstrate satisfactory academic progress in his/ her academic results at GUB in order to maintain his/ her scholarship and tuition fee waiver. Otherwise, the tuition fee will be calculated according to that semester's GUB tuition fee policy.

c. All types of waiver based on previous academic results will continue for first two semesters. For third and consecutive semesters, waiver will depend on results of the 2nd and subsequent semesters. After first two semesters, if any student fails to maintain his/her required GPA; s/he will get the following opportunities for subsequent semesters:

i. If a student fails to maintain the minimum semester GPA required for a particular level of waiver, s/he will be entitled for a lower level of waiver entitled to a student equivalent to his achieved GPA. Examples as below:

> If a student has got 100% waiver for which minimum semester GPA requirement is 3.50, but fails to maintain this GPA and gets GPA 3.25, s/he may be allowed to enjoy 40% waiver for that semester.

> If a student has got more than 10% waiver for which minimum GPA requirement is 2.75 to 3.50, but fails to maintain this GPA and gets GPA below 2.75 to 2.50, s/he may be allowed to enjoy 10% waiver for that particular semester.

> If a student has got 10% waiver for which minimum GPA requirement is 2.75, but fails to maintain this GPA and gets GPA below 2.75 to 2.50, s/he may be allowed to enjoy 5% waiver for that particular semester.

d. If a student officially dropped any semester (maximum two semesters and have to be approved by the Registrar) s/he may be allowed for next semester waiver as approved before.

e. It is to mention that eligible students can avail only one option of scholarship/ tuition fee waiver whichever is higher. To enjoy scholarship and tuition fee waiver (except female, ethnic minority group, siblings and spouse waiver) undergraduate program students must take at least twelve (12) credits and master's programs students must take at least nine (9) credits in each semester. If any department offers less credit/ fewer credits (not less than 09 credits for undergraduate programs and 06 credits for graduate programs), the condition may be relaxed.

f. If any student registers in a semester for 9/ 12 or more credits, s/he have to pass all registered credits and to maintain the required GPA to enjoy or to continue his or her scholarship/ tuition fee waiver.

g. If a student drops a semester /drops all courses registered in a semester within the stipulated time, his/her tuition fee will not be refunded, rather it will be adjusted with the tuition fee payable during the next registration of courses. Besides, if the student cancels his/her admission after dropping a semester/ dropping all courses, such tuition fee will not be refunded either.

h. Scholarship and tuition fee waiver benefit is applicable only for tuition fee and is never applicable for Admission fee, Semester fee, Library fee, Laboratory fee, Extra Curricular activities fee, Internship/Dissertation/Project/Thesis/Research Writing/Monograph Writing, Course Improvement fee, Make-up or Retake examination and viva-voce fee.

i. Facilities, such as, scholarship, tuition fee waiver, etc. will instantly be cancelled forever if any student is found taking part in any activity which goes against the rules and regulations of the university. This policy will be followed strictly.

j. In case of Masters Program, education gap may be considered.

k. Applications of course waiver/ credit transfer must be submitted to the respective department before registration for classes in the 1st semester. Different departments may have some additional requirements.

l. A students can enjoy maximum 70% waiver from one or more categories except Word of Freedom Fighters, Players of National Cricket Team and Combined GPA 10 (without 4th subject)
